

Ethics

Ethics regarding the members of the Board of Trustees rests in the area of appropriateness of action. Ethical questions arise frequently and should be dealt with based on the criteria that are best for the institution in accordance with the laws and regulations governing public officials. Trustees must have but one allegiance, that is to the institution and its mission. Representing special constituencies dilutes trust and undermines the mission of the College.

Matters of a confidential nature frequently arise at the meetings and in the Board's relations with the College administration. It is imperative that Trustees maintain confidentiality with discussions and documents which might otherwise compromise a situation.
