

Independent Study

A student may pursue supervised study for one-half (0.5) to four (4.0) semester hours of credit on an independent basis for academic work which reflects a reasonable and moderate extension of current Lake Land College courses. Students are permitted to enroll in Independent Study with permission of the instructor and approval by the Division Chairperson and the Vice President for Academic Services.

Adopted November 9, 1998
Revised October 13, 2003
Revised January 11, 2016
Revised December 12, 2016. Effective January 1, 2017.