

Responding to Emergencies

In any type of emergency situation, employees should call 911. The Campus Police Department and the appropriate administration officials will mitigate the emergency following the guidelines in the College's Emergency Operations Plan which is reviewed annually and posted in the College's shared drive.

Employees are encouraged to periodically review the emergency flyers that are posted throughout campus for helpful information.