

CELEBRATING STUDENT SUCCESS

SARAH LOCKE, LAKER CLASS OF 2016

Sarah Locke, Laker class of 2016, graduated from Illinois State University in 2018 and recently accepted a graduate assistantship at the prestigious Wake Forest University in North Carolina.

While at Lake Land, Sarah was involved in the Student Government Association. She also served as the Peer-2-Peer for the Humanities Division and as a Student Ambassador!

Read what Sarah had to say about Lake Land:

"I'm very excited to continue my education at Wake Forest University and focus my studies on Interpersonal Health Communication! Lake Land College provided me with the quality education I needed to succeed at Illinois State University and get into a top rated Communication Master's program. I'm eager for my new adventure at Wake Forest, but I think my first years of college at Lake Land will always be my favorite!"
