

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

SOCIAL SCIENCE & EDUCATION

FINISH YOUR TEACHING DEGREE WITH NEW SCHOLARSHIP

SCHOLARSHIP AVAILABLE TO CURRENT AND PREVIOUS EARLY CHILDHOOD EMPLOYEES

Students and graduates who have or currently work in childhood education have the opportunity to complete their degree through the Early Childhood Access Consortium for Equity. The ECACE allows those who are eligible to further their degree in teaching and achieve access to jobs with greater benefits.

COVERS TUITION, BOOKS, CHILDCARE, TRANSPORTATION, AND MORE

Students who are eligible can complete their degree for little or no cost. The ECACE provides coverage of costs for applicants who have experience working in early childhood employment fields.

FIRST PRIORITY DEADLINE IS JULY 15

Visit www.isac.org. Click on the "ECACE" tab to discover how the ECACE Scholarship Program can help you! Applications past the deadline will be accepted on a rolling admission. For more information, visit www.isac.org or contact Tanille Ulm at 217-234-5488 or tulm@lakelandcollege.edu.

TOP 5 REASONS TO BE A TEACHER

Teaching is one of the most rewarding professions out there, and here's why! As a teacher, you can:

1. MAKE A DIFFERENCE

You'll make a difference in the lives of dozens of children and make an impact on what students will offer society as a whole.

2. HAVE JOB SECURITY

Teachers are in high demand, and you will have the potential to impact more than 3,000 children during your teaching career.

3. PROVIDE A SAFE AND PRODUCTIVE SPACE

Your classroom can be built as a safe space for children to learn, thrive and feel supported.

4. UNLEASH YOUR CREATIVITY

Connecting with students and finding unique ways to teach subject matter can be developed in very creative ways.

5. FEEL SUPPORTED

You can find support from veteran teachers, administrators, resource teams and staff members. You will also likely work in teams to make the best decisions for children.
