

COURSE TYPES

IN-PERSON COURSES

Students experience the full campus environment with in-person courses, whether at the main campus, Effingham Technology

Center, or another off campus location. All classes are conducted at the scheduled days and times, fostering direct interaction with instructors and classmates. While online tools and resources might be offered, the focus is on the in-person learning experience.

Offered as: In-Person – On-Campus
In-Person – Off-Campus
In-Person – ETC (Effingham)

ONLINE COURSES

Students experience the convenience of a completely online learning environment.

While deadlines ensure progress, students determine their own daily study schedule. Instructors maintain a strong online presence through chat sessions and active participation in discussion boards and email correspondence. Some online sections may require proctored tests or exams either on campus or at an instructor-approved location.

Offered as: Online
Online – Proctored Tests

VIRTUAL ONLINE COURSES

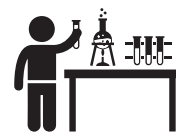

Virtual online sections offer the convenience of online learning with the dynamic interaction of a live classroom. Students experience scheduled, real-time sessions where they participate in lectures and discussions with the instructor and classmates. Some virtual online sections may require proctored tests or exams either on campus or at an instructor-approved location.

Offered as: Virtual Live Sessions
Virtual Live Sessions - Proc Test

HYBRID COURSES

Hybrid sections merge the benefits of in-person instruction with online learning.

Students attend scheduled on-campus meetings and engage in online activities, which may be time-specific or self-paced. Consult the section information for details on the course structure.

Offered as: Hybrid – On-Campus
Hybrid – Off-Campus
Hybrid – ETC (Effingham)

HYFLEX (FLEXIBLE) COURSES

Students experience true flexibility with HyFlex courses. They may attend in-person, join live online, or watch recorded lectures on-demand—whenever, wherever. No matter how students choose to participate, they get the same great learning experience. Labs and tests may require in-person attendance, but everything else is on their own schedule.

Offered as: HyFlex – On-Campus
HyFlex – Off-Campus
HyFlex – ETC (Effingham)

Lake Land College is dedicated to your academic goals. We offer a range of instructional formats designed to personalize your educational experience and adapt to your unique needs.

Consult the section information for details on the course location and course structure.